

Coat of arms of Lemberg, early 16th century

Museum at Town hall, the first imperial charter of free trade of the Lemberg market in 1506, signed by King Maximilian I (the original charter is kept in the Maribor Regional Archives).

Lemberg with the Town hall Museum with its pillar of shame. The Town hall was renovated and converted into a museum in 2010.

Location on the map: Lemberg pri Šmarju

The Hand of Justice at the Town hall (bronze, 2009, Mirsad Begič)

Lemberg near Šmarje, former folk and primary school, late 19th century. In the foreground the fairground, behind the school the fairground inn, behind it the Town hall and behind it the Church of St. Nicholas, on the left on the castle hill the tomb chapel in the Church of St. Pancras.

Niko Kuret, Funny Stories about the People of Lemberg, 1954

The Rotovž Museum, objects from the former fair inns in Lemberg.

The Rotovž museum, Cup of Countess Bertha von Suttner, around 1890.

Bertha von Suttner bought a house nearby. Legend has it that in gratitude for her help, she gave a local woman this cup filled with sugar, which was an expensive commodity in those days.

The Rotovž Museum, the Judge's Wardrobe, the sabre and imperial documents.

